

A good place to start in your Bible reading journey is the book of Mark. In Mark, you'll learn more about who Jesus is, his life on earth, and why he came.

As you read, try to write down at least one thing you are learning about Jesus each day. For example, as you read Mark 1, you might see that Jesus has the authority to heal (Mark 1:21–45). At the end of the week, take some time and review your list, reflecting on all you've learned about God through his Word.
